

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Annie M. Sullivan, June 15, 1892, with transcript

COPY AMERICAN ASSOCIATION TO PROMOTE THE TEACHING OF SPEECH TO THE DEAF A. Graham Bell, President Z. F. Westervelt, Secretary Office 1945 N. St. Paul St. Bellevue Hotel, Boston June 15, 1892. Dear Miss Sullivan:

You have been elected a member of our Association, and I trust that you have received your certificate of membership before this — from Mr. Booth, Sec. pro temp .

I have not time to write to you as fully as I desire, and can only endorse the note I sent to Capt. Keller — and say that we shall be happy to welcome you at Lake George — as the guest of the Association even though it may seem best for Helen that she should stay behind.

I enclose an announcement concerning the Summer meeting and also forward a copy of the Constitution of the Association and the list of members published last year.

Mr. Booth will forward to you a copy of the programme as soon as published and also any circulars of information that may be issued.

I trust sincerely that you may be able to attend. Please give my love to Helen and tell her I am glad she is in her own home once more.

Yours very sincerely, (signed) Alexander Graham Bell President.
